

Build a better manager.

Boost your company performance by building a strong management team

This program will help your managers:

- Enhance department productivity through accountability.
- Build a stronger team through new communication skills.
- Gain an understanding of the key roles of a manager.
- Increase your company's performance through hiring and training quality employees.

Call or go to our website for upcoming program information. Program meets once a month for 12 months. Seating is limited. Register today.

