

Now accepting applications for Class XX

Are you curious by nature and motivated to get involved in your community?

Are you looking for information about your county and actively exploring arenas in which to focus your energies?

Do you serve on boards or commissions or are you currently starting down a path of community service?

Are you committed to personal and professional growth?

Are you willing to view community issues from a broad perspective?

If this sounds like you, come visit us at www.leadershipslo.org

Major sponsors 2010

Pacific Gas and Electric Company

What graduates say about the program

Erica Stewart
Class XV
Human Resources Manager, Pacific Eye

"Leadership SLO was a fantastic program! Leadership helped breakdown barriers and take my knowledge of the community to a new level."

Brendan Morris
Class XI
Morris and Garritano Insurance Services

"Over the years Morris and Garritano has sent nine executives through Leadership SLO. The program enriches lives and deepens community connection which ultimately helps us help others."

Sandi Sigurdson
Class I
Executive Director
Leadership SLO

"Leadership SLO took me from an insulated woman with a strict list of qualifications for any new friends, political acquaintances or business relations to a member of the community who pre-judges less, listens more, evaluates more thoughtfully and who enjoys more varied acquaintances and richer friendships."