You have natural abilities in many areas. The key to success is to clarify and fine-tune your native genius to get the greatest possible return your on efforts.

I am one of just a handful of consultants personally authorized by StrengthsFinder® co-creator Marcus Buckingham to deliver his material independently.

With world-class training available right here on the Central Coast, you can train your entire team for a fraction of what it might cost to send only a few to a remote training location.

- Executive/Owner Mentoring
- Manager/Supervisor Development
- Solo-professional Coaching
- Workshops, Small Groups and Personal Sessions

Call or email for a personal, no obligation conversation about special options that are available for active members of the SLO Chamber of Commerce.
